App Developer | Native & Cross-platform Expert | Android & iOS | Web Developer | Graphic Designer

I am Fahim, currently studying in my 3rd year at the Institute of Information Technology (IIT), Jahangirnagar University. I specialize in both native and cross-platform application development, with hands-on experience in building efficient and user-friendly mobile applications using Flutter, Jetpack Compose, Kotlin, and Dart for Android and iOS platforms.

In addition to mobile app development, I am proficient in web development using wordpress.

I also bring a creative edge to my technical skillset as a Graphic Designer, with expertise in Adobe Illustrator and Adobe Photoshop.
